WHEREAS, Earl Miller was a great human being, and because he was a great human being, he was a Democrat; and,

WHEREAS, Earl was a free spirit, and an intelligent and compassionate man. He was what we call an iconoclast because he liked the different idea from the conventional wisdom; and,

WHEREAS, That is why it is especially appropriate, but not surprising, that Earl's friends think so well of him and miss him very much:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARVEY WOLLMAN, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, October 20, 1978, as in South Dakota, so that Earl's many friends may take a moment to appreciate a valued friendship.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Eight

HW

HARVEY WOLLMAN, GOVERNOR
